

2. Detailed technical specification including functional description and feasibility study.
3. Technical documentation: mechanical and electrical
4. Fabrication, assembly, installation and commissioning
5. „After sales” service.

Adeco is able to perform complex services of the automation of the following processes.

1. Design and fabrication of mechanics
2. Design and installation of instrumentation including the power components (electrics, pneumatics and hydraulics)
3. Software development of PLC

In addition, Adeco cooperates with a network of partner companies and we participate as a partner in other companies' projects. Depending on the specifics of the project we have work opportunities so please do not hesitate do get in touch with us whether you a client or talented engineer.

Adeco is proud of many accomplishments in performing specialist projects and we strive to deliver our best service.